

ASHOKAN WATERSHED STREAM MANAGEMENT PROGRAM

6375 State Rt. 28, Shandaken, NY 12464 ♦ (845) 688-3047 ♦ www.ashokanstreams.org

Volunteer Opportunity Form

Name _____

Address _____

Contact: phone _____ Email _____

Have you ever attended any of our events, programs or trainings before? Y___ N___

Are you interested in volunteering for the Ashokan Basin Stream Management Program?

Please indicate which you might be interested in.

Some of the opportunities available are:

- Stream Clean-ups
- Outreach to local communities
- Education
- Invasive species control
- Streamside plantings
- Organizing local events
- Stream monitoring

Would you be interested in attending one day trainings about stream stewardship? Y___ N___

Half day? Y___ N___

What is your availability? _____

What skills do you have that might benefit this program?

Check all that apply or add your own.

- Computer expertise ex: Networking, word, database, publisher, etc.
- Gardening or landscaping
- GPS/GIS mapping
- Comfortable talking with people
- Research
- Public speaking
- Other
- Teaching groups or individuals

Cornell University
Cooperative Extension
Ulster County

ASHOKAN WATERSHED STREAM MANAGEMENT PROGRAM

6375 State Rt. 28, Shandaken, NY 12464 ♦ (845) 688-3047 ♦ www.ashokanstreams.org

Volunteer Opportunity Form – p. 2

Do you have any licenses, certifications or experiences that might prove helpful or relevant?

What other types of volunteer work have you done in the past?

What did you like the best about it? And what did you like the least?

Would you be interested and available for a monthly meeting? Y____ N____

What do you hope to accomplish by serving as a volunteer?

Please return this form to our office –Ashokan Watershed Stream Management Program, 6375 State Hwy 28, Phoenicia, NY 12464

Contact Dona Crawford (dm282@cornell.edu) or Michael Courtney(mcc55@cornell.edu) or our Phoenicia office at 845-688-3047 for more information.

Cornell University
Cooperative Extension
Ulster County

